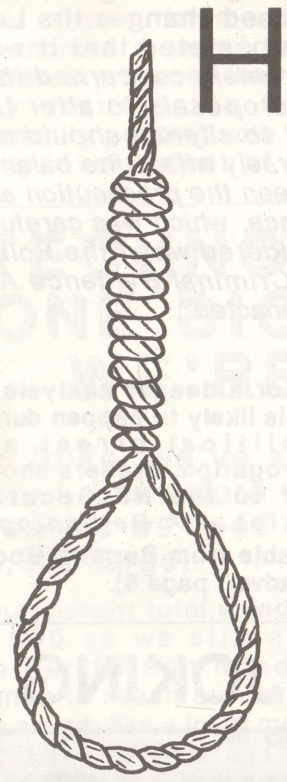
HANGING VOTE SHOWS : MAJORITY OPINION MEANS NOTHING !



AFTER another wave of brutal murders and revolting rapes, millions of ordinary Britons watched to see if our 'leaders' in parliament would at last bring in punishment to fit these evil crimes.

An overwhelming majority of people in our nations are sick to death of a system which allows feeble-minded old drunks in silly wigs to let rapists off with suspended sentences, or to let brutal murderers or child molesters out onto the streets to strike again.

Every test of public opinion shows that most people agree with the National Front demand for the death penalty for pre-meditated murder and for child killers. And the vast majority also want effective sentences for rape, including the possibility of life imprisonment or chemical castration.

WISHES IGNORED

But yet again, Tory M.P.'s have joined their Liberal and Labour counterparts in ignoring the wishes of the people and in rejecting the death penalty and effective punishments. Their arrogance exposes parliamentary representation as a hoax - a 'democratic' cloak for the dictatorship of the Super Rich.

Insulated from real life and protected from crime by their money and safe country houses, they don't give a damn about the problems, fears or wishes of ordinary people.

The arrogance of our rulers is summed up by the letter sent out by M.P. John Wheeler to any constituent who asked him to support the restoration of the death penalty:

"Those who favour capital punishment - almost certainly a majority of the population - have to recognize the existance of a substantial minority who passionately oppose the idea; a minority, moreover, which probably includes a majority of those who form opinion".

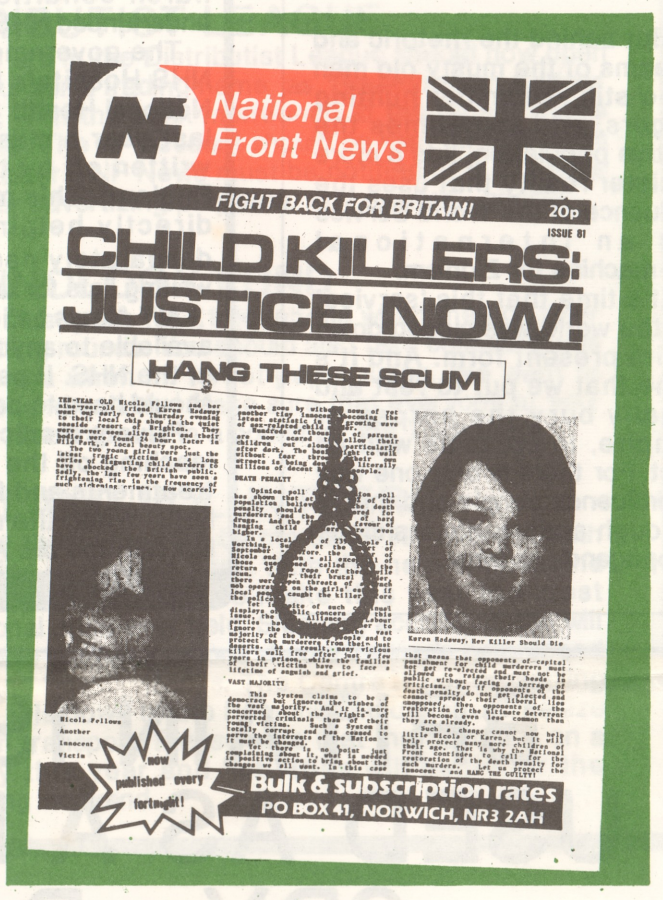
So our Masters admit that majority opinion means nothing. It's the minority of parliament and the media who decide what goes on. And they call it 'democracy'. What a sick joke !

NF MESSAGE

No wonder that more and more people are getting the NF message that parliamentary 'representation' is a con-trick. The only way to create true peoples' rule is to scrap the present farce altogether. The only way ordinary people will ever be listened to is when we elect delegates to do exactly what the majority tells them to do.

Of course we need officials to carry out the wishes of the people, but we don't need fat overpaid M.P.'s telling us what those wishes should be. It doesn't matter what the issue is. Whether it's capital punishment, immigration, nuclear power or the NHS, the only group with the right to make opinions and laws for the peoples of the British nations must be the people of those nations.

NEN 81.
The NF have continually called for tough sentences for child killers.



BRING BACK THE ROPE !

What is it that compels a man to kill a young woman who is totally innocent and whom he has never met ? Are these people mad, or just purely evil ? Despite the constant assurances of the police, it does not take a psychologist to realize that nothing constructive is being done in our communities to stop these murders taking place. It is no good bringing in probation officers or social workers for these people, or even giving out harsh sentences to them. There is only one solution that will serve as a useful deterrent....hanging.

In the past few weeks there have been several brutal, cowardly murders on young women in Britain: Murder No.1; Debbie Linsley was travelling alone in the single-compartment of a train in Kent. She was viciously stabbed five times and left for dead. Debbie was 26. Murder No.2; Audrey Skelton, 39, was killed just seven hours before she was due to marry her fiance. She was murdered in her own home in North Yorkshire. Murder No.3; Blond Amanda Hopkinson was found stabbed to death in Bexley, Kent. She was just 17. Murder No.4; Little Carol Baldwin, only 13, was stabbed in the back as she popped out to a friends house. The most sickening thing about this murder was that she didn't even hear her attacker creep up behind because she had been listening to her Sony Walkman which was still blasting away when her body was found.

So now, instead of beating about the bush, this corrupt Tory government should make it their duty to reinstate the death penalty for these vicious crimes. Until this is done the government should be held partly responsible for denying the British peoples the right to feel safe on their own streets. We want Justice !

It should be made absolutely clear to readers that only M.P.'s are allowed to vote on the matter of bringing back hanging. This is one of the many examples of their corrupt methods of governing, as most folk agree that the penalty should be brought back into operation. This clearly illustrates the fact that parliamentary representation is a total con. Every individual should have the right to his or her say. Participation not Representation !

HOME AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

B.B.C. REINFORCES ITS EMPIRE MENTALITY

ONCE AGAIN there has been plenty of debate amongst the closed shop of the British Establishment over the size of the budget allocation to the BBC World Service.

We are constantly told that this country keeps up high standards of broadcasting so that our "sense of fair play and justice" will command the respect of other nations in the world who will look to Britain "for leadership in international affairs". In other words so that the British State can maintain its fast dwindling influence in the world.

Behind this rhetoric lies the festering corpse of an old Empire and a mentality that wants to create a new one.

BEHIND THE RHETORIC

But behind the rhetoric and dreams of the musty old men who still remember hunting Tigers, and sometimes the native population, lies a more sinister reality that uses the influence of the World Service as an international lie-machine for Zionism.

It's time that this 'service' to the world was closed down in its present form. And it's time that we put to rest and finally bury the corpse of Empire, in spirit as well as fact. For there is only one way to influence people and that is through actions not insidious propaganda or force.

"THE NHS IS SAFE WITH US"

"The NHS is safe with us" stated Thatcher at the 1984 Tory Party Conference when assuring her followers about her drive to privatize health care.

But disturbing figures have recently been published showing the true consequences of Tory policy. The figures show an alarming 25% increase in the number of nurses quitting the NHS for the private sector.

A Nursing Times survey recently revealed that the main reason is not the low rates of pay but the increasingly harsh conditions faced by staff in the massively underfunded NHS.

The government often argue that private patients in NHS Hospitals bring in much needed revenue for the National Health Service, but the latest figures show that last year a massive £801,221 of bad debts had to be written off by the 15 Regional Health Authorities in England. This means that these private parasites are directly helping to starve the Health Service of desparately needed funds and it means even longer waiting lists for urgent treatment for the rest of us.

NF News believes that private health care should be available to anyone who wants it, but not at the expense of the NHS. If people want private health care then they should have to pay for it.

Private medicine must train its own staff instead off leeching off the Health Service. It must finance its own treatments and facilities instead of renting them off the NHS. When the rich don't pay it's not us who should be left with the bill. A bill of suffering and neglect.

HURD ACCEPTS POLITICAL POLICE RECOMMENDATION

NO SILENCE IN COURT !

HOME Secretary Douglas Hurd is set to "make concessions" on part of his proposed changes which will abolish the right of silence - a basic freedom granted by the Magna Carta.

Top Police Chiefs have been pushing for such a law for a long time now and Hurd recently announced that he is going ahead with it.

But one small group of defendants, about 4% at the moment, will still be able to claim the right to silence under Hurd's changes. These are the people who refuse to answer police questions and comply with interrogation whilst in police custody, and, who also refuse to go into the witness box at their trial.

But the prosecutors at their trial will still be allowed to make adverse comments about these defendants to the jury in order to sway the trial towards conviction.

ONLY SAFEGUARD

The right to remain silent is the only safeguard that many innocent people have against an increasingly politicized police force and legal system. This is especially true of "politicals" and "subversives" who the System would like to see silenced.

When taken into custody a whole range of horrific measures are taken against people so that they will either 'crack' and willingly give information under extreme pressure, or will be tricked into talking and unwittingly giving information which will be used to convict them or others. Failing that it will be filed for future use.

Commenting on the proposed changes the Law Society stated that it was "extremely concerned that any proposals to alter the right to silence should not adversely affect the balance between the prosecution and defence, which was carefully considered when the Police and Criminal Evidence Act was enacted".

* For a deeper analysis on what is likely to happen during a political arrest and interrogation, readers should refer to the NF Security booklet - "A Beginning" - available from Burning Books (see advert page 8).

BRITAIN IS BEING USED AS A FOREIGN SPY - BASE !

THE USA is using Britain as a spy base. Installations such as the giant Menwith Hill complex have been long documented.

Menwith Hill (code name - Steeplebush) is a Satellite Signals Intelligence Base controlled by the US 'National Security Agency' and manned by up to 2000 American troops and operators.

LARGEST OF ITS KIND

The base, which is the largest of its kind in the world, is situated 5 miles west of Harrogate in North Yorkshire and uses GCHQ in Cheltenham to provide it with additional information. It is also directly linked to the Pine Gap Base in Australia and to Fort Meade, the NSA HQ in Maryland, USA.

This American Spy Base is due to be expanded and updated shortly, but at its present level is capable of intercepting all telecommunications in Europe.

But although these facts are shocking in themselves more of the spywork of the USA has recently come to light.

AERIAL ESPIONAGE

In a recent book "Aerial Espionage", Netherlands author Dick Van Der Aart has brought to light after 10 years intensive research the way that the USA operates in Europe without reference or regard for the European nations.

One instance alone shows the duplicity of this arrogant warmongering State. On 23rd March 1973 an RC130 spyplane was operating along the Libyan and Egyptian coast. Libyan mirages were ordered to shoot down the spyplane but the message was intercepted and the American pilot managed to escape by flying into clouds.

As late as 1983 the US authorities denied that the plane was on a spying mission. But the truth later emerged and has deeply upset the Greek government because it transpires that the Hellinikon airfield near Athens was being used as the base for this and similar missions without the Greeks being informed.

WITHOUT CONSENT

This is just one instance that we now know about. How many spy flights take place from our soil and from other European nations, with or without the government's consent ? It is clear that the USA doesn't seek permission for its dirty work. It is also clear that the interests of the US are not those of Europe and it is certain that these parasites also spy on their host countries.

It is just one more in an evergrowing catalogue of facts of why we must oppose the US occupation of Europe. Another reason why we must campaign for the withdrawal of all US bases and influence in Britain.

Menwith Hill: Acting against our interests.

YOU MUST BE JOKING !

TORY CLAIMS that unemployment is falling are a joke. A particularly sick and nasty joke full of lies and deceit and suffering for millions of our people who are forced to live with the reality of Thatcher's Britain. The claims that unemployment has dropped for the 21st consecutive month to 2.5 million are a lie. The truth is that the official fall of 504,000 between May 1986 and March this year is really only 130,000.

COOKING THE BOOKS

Norman Fowler's figures are accounted for by his department cooking the books by squeezing people off the unemployment register through the new 'available for work test' and a general tightening of the rules for claiming benefits. So the figures in fact reflect the number of people claiming benefit and not the much larger numbers actually out of work.

Over the last few years when the figures actually meant something and unemployment was soaring, the Tories began to initiate a number of deceitful and callous schemes to help their image and con people. The changes in retirement age; YTS, JTS, Restart and a host of other schemes and new laws have knocked millions off the official figures.

And we can expect further 'cheerful' news from Fowler in the coming months as the effects of the final phase of the new Social Security Act which started in April take their toll on the poor and bring down the Tory figures even more dramatically.

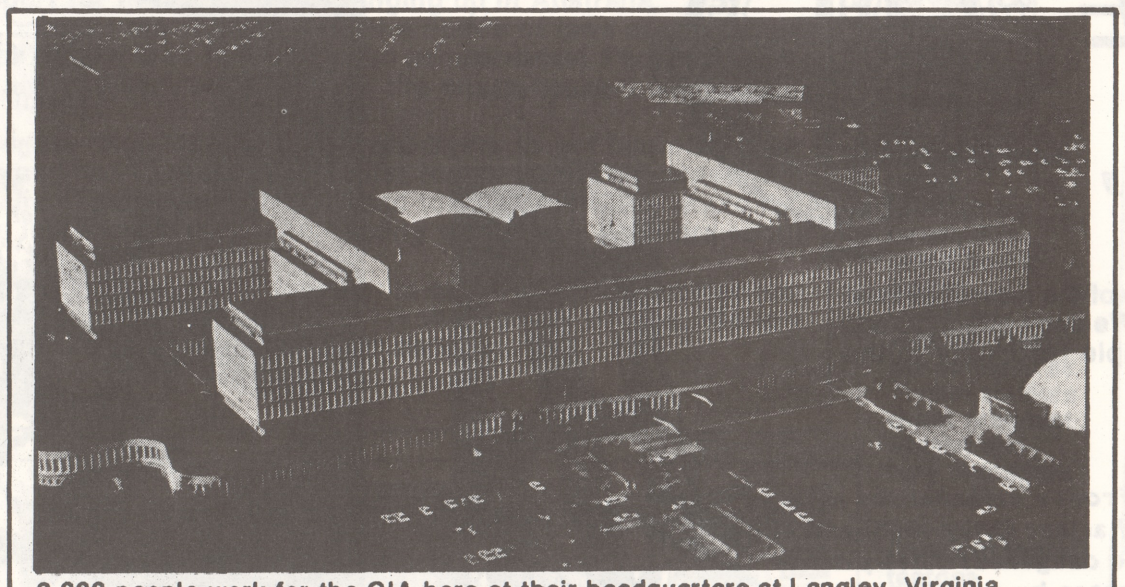
WORLD AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

PANAMA: A LESSON IN DEPENDENCY ON OTHERS

THE BANKS close as they run out of bank notes and the national bank cannot help. Pensioners cannot cash their pensions, public employees are part paid in bags of small change. Others wait for weeks on end, vouchers are issued for declining emergency stocks. Tear gas regularly taints the air as retired civil servants protest their plight. The economy and services are close to total shutdown.

Where ? The US in the great depression of the 1920's, a nightmarish scenario from Britain in the '90's ?

No, this was Panama in 1988. The economy in ruins, the government under seige; a picture many non western States fear. But Panama is unusual in that it's not the result of internal collapse but of external economic pressure from the USA in an attempt to topple the Noreiga regime.



9,000 people work for the CIA here at their headquarters at Langley, Virginia.

DRUGS TRADE

Noreiga's repressive regime is unfortunately not uncommon and there are also alleged links to the evil drugs trade which help to boost Panama's economy.

Allegations have also been made that Noreiga actually worked hand in hand with the CIA and other US State agencies. It seems that the American authorities used to turn a blind eye to Noreiga's export activities to the US in return for some of the profits from his dealings in death and misery going to finance the reactionary US backed Contra forces in Nicaragua.

But suddenly Noreiga fell foul of his powerful allies. Whatever we might think of the Panamanian regime, the US interference in its domestic politics is as outrageous as it is usual.

Most US activities in what it terms as 'spheres of interest' are covert, involving back-door pressure and CIA subversion. But whatever the reason for the alleged former allies falling out it was serious enough for the US to blatantly flex its economic muscle in an all out attempt to crush Panama.

ACHILLES HEEL

Although poor by Latin American standards, Panama's Achilles heel lay in its economic dependence on the USA; the currency is US dollars, much of its revenue comes from the US for the use of the Canal and trade is largely conducted to and from its northern 'big brother'.

The US forced American banks to stop dealing with their Panamanian counterparts and all its assets in the US, most of them, were frozen.

Starved of Yankee dollars the banks shut down whilst the county's 'elite' fled with as much loot as they could organize.

Such is the stranglehold on the economy that the bankruptcy might be terminal. Even indigenous opponents of Noreiga became concerned that US tactics had ruined the economy by 'sinking the ship to get the Captain'.

DEVASTATING

And the results were so devastating that even the American banks realized that it would cause grave problems for the international banking system if allowed to continue. So, with their enormous power and influence, they forced Washington to overrule the tactics of the State agencies.

There are valuable lessons to be learnt from this episode, and it should serve as a reminder to us all of the reality of superpower economic hegomony over the world - neo colonialism.

Those who fall out of favour or attempt to be independent will be punished.

Nationalism is about self-determination and independence, economic and political, or it is nothing. If Noreiga is to go it should be on the boot of his own people rather than on the strings of a foreign power.

Until the small nations of the world unite against the superpowers, until the financial system, including world debt, is overturned and national self-sufficiency becomes the goal, we are all doomed to be exploited in others interests.

IS THEIR FATE SEALED ?

Under intense international pressure Canada has just adopted a new seal policy apparently aimed at protecting them and limiting hunting to the native coastal peoples.

In issue 87 of NF News we reported on the NF Animal Welfare Groups activities at the annual Anti-Seal netting rally in London.

In a recent communication to an NF News correspondent in Wales, Canadian Minister of Fisheries and Oceans, Tom Siddon had this to say about the barbaric practice.

"The new policy applies to all seals in Canadian waters. It no longer permits the commercial hunting of whitecoat harp seals and blueback hooded seals, ends the offshore hunt by large sealing vessels, and will phase out and end the netting of seals except for traditional Arctic and sub-Arctic hunts.

"New Seal Protection regulations will put these and other changes into effect. They will ensure that the remaining traditional harvest of older seals for meat, fur and leather by Inuit and other coastal people is conducted as humanely as possible."

Although on the face of it this news should be welcomed, Tom Siddon's brief statement is carefully worded in such a way that it could mean that nothing substantial has changed at all except for one of the barbaric slaughtering methods.

And this is only to be phased in and doesn't apply to the native peoples. Over what period of time he didn't commit himself but when it is eventually enforced it should spare the lives of tens of thousands of seals. At least for a short while.

What Tom Siddon means by "traditional" and "other coastal people" is anyone's guess. Does he mean the native Eskimo peoples or those from further afield ?

Each Spring trawlers traditionally bring hundreds of blood thirsty hunters to the ice-floes near Newfoudland and in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Would the new regulations stop these monstrous people who drive ice-picks into the skulls of defenceless seals and bludgeon them to death ?

* Whitecoat – 7 days old meant to be spared, but many are killed.

* Raggety jacket – 13 days old still put under death sentence.

* Beater – only 18 days old – but old enough to die.

Some of them are even skinned alive.

The new regulations will in theory stop the murder of the youngest seal pups, much prized by the rich for their pure white coats, but the slaughter can still officially take its horrific toll on any seal older than about 18 days.

If you are concerned about Tom Siddon's vaguely worded statement you can press him for further details by writing to him at: Tom Siddon, Minister of Fisheries and Oceans, Centennial Building, Canada.

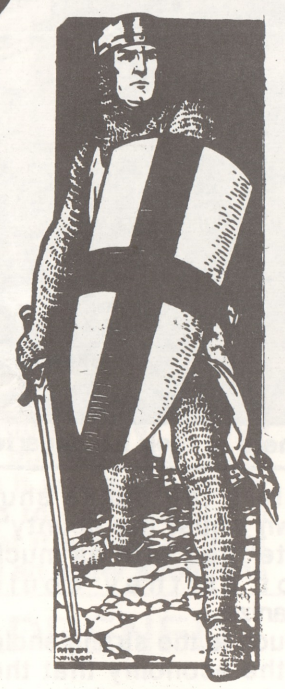
THE FRONT LINE : TRIBUTE TO A FALLEN COMRADE

"FROM SACRIFICE COMES VICTORY"

Where the Warrior falls, a hundred shall rise!



NFN is pleased to be able to publish a few of the messages read at Albert Mariner's graveside last month. We don't intend to add any other comment as they provide ample testimony to the Victory of Martyr's.

Comrades !

On this solemn day in the National Front's calender, be assured that the supreme Sacrifice of Albert Mariner (May 1983) and the continued dedication of NF activists on dangerous sales pitches throughout the country, are not forgotten by your Comrades who through necessity take a less active role on our streets.

Albert's many years of steady work for the NF in East London will never be forgotten, and it is good to see that the NF presence in that area is still strong.

Let us resolve today to work together to use the paper which Albert sold with such dedication, to build as a memorial to all of our martyrs, a powerful National Revolutionary force, capable of ensuring that their Sacrifice will not have been in vain.

Albert was the National Front's first martyr. He has since been joined on the Roll of Honour by Keith White (April 1986) in Portadown, murdered by the British State, and by George Seawright (November 1987) in Belfast, murdered by Red Imperialist terrorists, who feared his popularity and ability.

These martyrs will not be the last, yet however many of us fall in the future struggle for National Freedom and Social Justice in our beloved islands, let those who remain stand by the watchword: Don't mourn - Organize!

We are sorry that we can not be there with you today due to the production of National Front News, but we are present in spirit, as are our Comrades Albert Mariner, Keith White and George Seawright.

From Sacrifice comes Victory!

Editorial Staff; NF News.

Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru / Wales National Front deply regret that they cannot send any representatives to the graveside service to commemorate our first martyr Albert Mariner.

He gave his all in the struggle towards the National Revolution and it is up to us all to make sure that his untimely death was not in vain.

That this message is not presented personally by Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru does not lessen our gratitude to Albert and our other martyrs, or our unhappiness at our and the British nations' loss.

Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru.

We will not forgive. We will not forget. We will not fail.

On this solemn day, with the deepest respect, our thoughts are with you.

Oldham National Front.

Albert Mariner, a true patriot murdered by scum. The first of our many martyrs to come. Only through Sacrifice and Struggle shall we win.

Albert, you are never forgotten and your murderers will never be forgiven.

Sefton National Front.

The greatest monument we can build to honour our fallen Comrade is the Victory of National Revolution.

In honour of Albert we take this stand,
The death of one man will give Life to a land.

Wirral National Front.

"He that overcometh shall inherit all things".

Remembering this day our Comrade Albert who Sacrificed his Life, may we always be willing to Sacrifice our time and talents for the Cause.

Sheffield and Rotherham National Front.

The best way to avenge the evil murder of our Comrade Albert Mariner is to ruthlessly build our Nationalist Revolutionary Movement to the point where this disgusting, traitorous State of Britain is smashed and swept away and replaced by true nationalism, the Third Position, as Albert would have wanted.

From Sacrifice comes Victory!

Burnley National Front.

Another year of hard struggle in the long total struggle for National Freedom and Social Justice. Another year since the murder of our Comrade Albert Mariner. Yet though the years pass, his memory does not fade.

New Comrades join the fight and pledge:
We will not forget; We will not forgive.

Shrewsbury National Front.

Remembering those who Sacrificed themselves in earlier stages in our Struggle and development is the movement's link with the past and our inspiration for the future.

It serves to remind us of the "little men of politics" destined to follow a Cause without thought of benefit or danger; Sacrificed on the alter of blind strategies and hatred against the Global Struggle of Ideas, their future mapped out by others but without such men and women a movement has no future.

National Directorate of the National Front.

WHERE WE STAND

NATIONAL FREEDOM

Britain is a family of Nations - England, Wales, Scotland, Kernow, Mannin, Eire and Ulster - linked by blood and history. The peoples of all nations have an inalienable right to self - determination and to preserve their native cultures and traditions. We look forward to the day when Eire voluntarily rejoins the future federated British family of nations.

RACIAL SEPARATION

Race is the main determining factor in nationality. Racially mixed societies cannot form one nation and are therefore unstable. No one race is 'superior' to others, but they are all different. Racial integration threatens all races. Humane repatriation is better for us all than endless repression and racial violence.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The nation is a great family. Every member of our national family has the absolute right to care at the nation's expense when young, sick or old. There must be equal opportunity for all, but unearned privilege for none.

WELL DISTRIBUTED PROPERTY

The realistic opportunity to own one's own home and place of work is the right of all our people. Direct ownership of the means of production and distribution is essential for individual freedom, for family stability and for the best use of our national resources.

SANITY IN FINANCE

The right to create the credit needed by the economy must belong to the people's government. The banks, which have usurped this right, must be stripped of their unjust gains and power. The National Debt is based on usury and must be repudiated.

RESPECT FOR NATURE

We hold the environment in trust for future generations. Pollution of the land, sea and air, and of the gene pool through radiation, is a betrayal of that trust.

DIRECT DEMOCRACY

Parliamentary representation is a fraud. Party rule is a cloak for the dictatorship of vested interests and media bosses. Government must be in the hands of the people themselves, through new information technology, and the election of delegates to carry out their wishes. Power must be devolved to the lowest possible level.

THE ARMED PEOPLE

The freedoms given by these principles must be defended through armed neutrality, with well - equiped national defence forces involving the entire adult population. Power, wealth and arms in the hands of the people!

REVOLUTION NOT REFORM

These changes cannot be brought about by tinkering within the System, or by relying on the System's own institutions, such as parliament, schools or the courts. They can only spring from a National Revolution. This revolution must begin in the hearts of individuals, then spread by their example to involve whole communities in revolutionary structures such as alternative councils and schools, neighbourhood patrols and self - help groups. Once we cease to depend on the institutions of the old State, it will be swept aside.

THE THIRD WAY

The growth of these ideas in nation after nation shows that a new force is rising in the world for the 21st century. Leaving behind the sterile hatreds of Capitalism and Communism, this Third Way offers a real future for all our peoples. We urge all those who agree with these principles to join with us in the struggle to build the National Front - the Movement of the Future.

FEATURE : CAMPAIGN FOR PALESTINIAN RIGHTS

CPR: AN INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVE

An important development has taken place regarding the Campaign for Palestinian Rights since the reports in our last issue. It has now taken on an international perspective with active support for the Campaign springing up in Australia.

But it was no picket that brought the Campaign to the notice of tens of thousands of people in Melbourne. For in late May a courageous broadcaster, Paul Madigan, read out on his radio programme on Melbourne 3RRR the entire content of the CPR leaflet "Terror Tours".

The Zionist hate response was immediate and they are trying to get him off the air but Paul Madigan is determined not to give in to Zionist terror directed against him. He was contacted by Australian comrades of the NF and told them that he would not be intimidated. And he even intends to repeat the reading and tell his listeners about the Zionist threats !

Even without this latest development the Campaign is quickly gaining momentum and results, and the pressure is being applied to ABTA throughout Britain. We are confident that the CPR will cause them to reverse their decision.

KEEP UP THE PRESSURE !

SUFFOLK

Unfortunately Suffolk is one area of the country where the CPR hadn't organized, so the West Suffolk NF have formed an approved CPR group consisting entirely of NF supporters (so far).

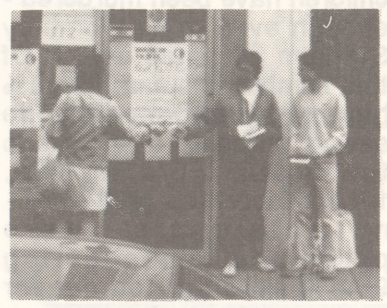
East Anglia NF have just launched a major recruiting drive which began on Saturday 14th May, with a team of young militants setting off on tour in a minibus in the style of the pre-war Rumanian nationalist movement - The Legion of St. Michael the Archangel. The minibus was kindly paid for by the generous donation of a local supporter.

All in all four towns were visited and it is hoped that due to the response in one town a new NFN Supporters Unit could be formed in the near future.

Our activities included picketting ABTA affiliated travel agents for the CPR as well as paper selling and distributing hundreds of stickers that were soon in evidence wherever they could possibly be stuck. No one could ignore the fact that the NF were about.

Our CPR activities became quite humourous as one irrate travel agent came out to complain to the picket that "it isn't fair" and "why don't you do the other ABTA shops?" Well, we did !

Plans were later made to repeat such activities in the future and to capitalize on the positive response, hopefully drawing in new activists to the CPR.



MERTHYR

NF activists from Merthyr Tydfil picketted two travel agents, one on a main shopping street and one on a side street. The manager of the one (4 Seasons) never bothered us, but at the other T.A. (House of Travel) the pro-Zionist manager said "I don't care about the Palestinians" and kept repeating this obscene view. He also threatened us by calling the police, but this didn't stop the picket and we gave out all our leaflets.

CARDIFF

NF activists from Caerdydd joined in CPR pickets in the Roath area. Two travel agents were picketted in Albany Road and though the owners and workers ignored us, the response from the public was outstanding. Amongst other things, two Palestinians took dozens of leaflets to "pass round our family and friends".

The local press have ignored all our press releases up until now, but this has not deterred us and we will continue to show the Welsh people what is happening in occupied Palestine.

CPR leaflet.

"For a real scream - for the 'horrorday' to end a lifetime, this travel agent will send you to sun-soaked, blood -splattered Israel. See blood flow in quaint occupied villages. Hear the screams as Zionist soldiers shoot pregnant women and bury teenagers alive with bulldozers. Choke in the teargas scented breeze."

TERROR TOURS

WHY JUST SIT AND WATCH ISRAELI TROOPS BEATING UP ARAB SCHOOLCHILDREN ON T.V. WHEN YOU CAN GO AND SEE THE REAL THING ?

ASSOCIATION OF BRITISH TRAVEL AGENTS — ABTA

CENTRAL LONDON

Slowly but surely the CPR is weaving its way through all the many travel agents in Central London.

The campaign has already generated a lot of interest and it is hoped that with the large number of Palestinian and Middle Eastern students to be found in the area, that a mass campaign will really start to take off in the coming weeks in the centre of London.

ABOVE:
Irrate travel agents throughout the country are beginning to learn that if they support the Zionist terror State their businesses will suffer.

BELOW:
Many concerned members of the public are showing solidarity with the oppressed in Palestine by listening intently to the CPR message and boycotting pro-Israeli ABTA shops.

BELFAST

Three representatives of the Belfast NF joined a CPR picket outside Concord Travel in Bridge Street, Central Belfast. The presence of a large Palestinian flag attracted much attention and our leaflets were snapped up by an interested public.

The CPR intend to picket other Belfast travel agents who support ABTA's decision, and Belfast NF will support them again.

'Halt the terror tours to Israel'

TRAVEL AGENTS PICKETED IN PALESTINIAN PROTEST

AN organisation, calling itself the Campaign for Palestinian Rights, plans a picket of local travel agents in a bid to halt tourism to Israel.

In a press release issued today, the CPR says that travel agents in Oldham, who are encouraging tourism to the "terror state of Israel", are now being challenged by an active local group of the Campaign for Palestinian Rights.

They say that members of the group plan to picket local agents, handing out leaflets advertising what are described as "Terror Tours".

Says the leaflet: "Why sit and watch Israeli troops beating up Arab schoolchildren on television when you go and see the real thing?"

The provocative leaflet goes on to say that for the "horrorday" to end a lifetime, travel agents will send you to sun-soaked, blood-spattered Israel.

The CPR claims that it has launched its campaign against travel agents across the country because ABTA —the Association of British Travel Agents — plans to hold its annual conference in Israel this year.

The CPR says: "This would result in a big increase in tourist revenue for this repressive, racist state.

"In view of the continued brutal Zionist oppression of Palestinians in their own country, the CPR believes that this is unacceptable, and is calling on the public to encourage local travel agents to press ABTA members to reverse their provocative plans."

The CPR says that as the first step in its campaign, it is to picket the shops of local ABTA members, handing out copies of their leaflet.

Challenge

The statement says: "This is the first stage in the building of a nationwide campaigning body to put the case for Palestinian rights and challenge the dominance of the powerful pro-Zionist hobby in Britain."

Local travel agents today said that they had so far had no contact with the CPR.

Agents around Oldham town centre said that they were not aware of any pickets or of anyone handing out leaflets.

OLDHAM

The CPR campaign has got off to a good start in Oldham. With the help of local NF activists the campaign has brought some interesting results and the best local media publicity yet.

Americanization is destroying our Culture.

There is a nickname within nationalist circles, which refers to America as "The Great Satan". This term is not applied for the purpose of poking fun at the Americans, but has arisen out of our love for the British nations. Nationalists truly believe that the cosmopolitan side of the land kind enough to provide us with tobacco and lung cancer, is without doubt, the equivalent of Hell on Earth.

Readers may have glanced at the heading above and wondered how American 'culture' can possibly threaten the well-being of Britain. Are we under attack from well organized gangs of skateboard fanatics, or are the shoulder pads worn by American Football fans, a caution against pending guerilla warfare? Of course not, but the truth threatens to prove even more cataclysmic. Twenty five years ago, America was by no means a good example of the perfect society. It would have been ludicrous to try and imitate American 'culture' and recommend it for the future direction of Britain. Yet this is exactly what has happened!

These days one does not have to look far to find masses of evidence supporting the claim of an alien cultural invasion. Young people everywhere are beginning to turn to this 'culture' in their droves. The reason for this shift in cultural allegiance lies at the very heart of the educational system.

The kids of todays consumer society are being brainwashed by the mass media to adopt a way of life totally alien to British youth previously. An example of this is the number of advertisments directed towards children in the run up to Christmas. How many times have you witnessed a child's reaction to an advertisement of this sort? And how many times has the child expressed a desire to own the product - "I want one"? This is how youngsters are being manipulated and turned into greedy materialists.

The greediness in so many children comes from the way in which these toys have been designed. The toys are usually only a single part or a character from a massive range. Instead of satisfying the child by buying it the gift it requires, and have done with it, the big companies purposely create a mass of additional gadgets to accompany the original. Parents can always refuse to take part in this silly 'game' of course, but in a 'beat your neighbour' world, many feel it is their duty to take part.

But what has this got to do with Americanization you may ask? Quite a bit, because at present the origins of the majority of these toy characters on offer - He-Man, Superman, Star Wars, The A Team, etc - are American. But that is not to say that we wouldn't oppose this appeal to people's greed if they were predominantly British.

Other forms of American 'culture' exist in sport and language. It makes you wonder where traditional British sports have disappeared to as they are beginning to be replaced in importance by American Football, Basketball, Ice Hockey etc.

A new form of slang has also become prominent in youth dialect. Expresions such as "wicked" and "cool" have become apparent and taken on new meanings in everyday language. These modern terms stem from all the American films that dominate our television and cinema screens.

But perhaps the most dangerous form of cultural imperialism is to be found in the music scene. This can be illustrated by comparing some of the old "Ready, Steady, Go" episodes of the Sixties with today's editions of "Top of the Pops". Here exists a racial difference. Most of the music imported from the USA consists of racially mixed cosmopolitan bands and the same racially mixed make up of groups is now established in 'home grown' bands. Disco's and programmes like "Top of the Pops" have become brainwashing instruments, where young people are subconciously 'educated' with race mixing propaganda.

Americanization obviously appears harmless enough to a lot of people in society, but the junk culture which America exports to Britain is utterly decadent. Our children must be shown the importance of becoming proud of their own rich heritage, and why they must not follow the trends promoted by the Great Satan. We must all be extremely vigilant in the Quest to rid our nations of foreign influence.....DEATH TO AMERICANIZATION!

DEAR EDITOR

Please keep letters short and to the point - maximum 300 words please. The NF is a pro-Life organization but we don't intend to turn into a single-issue pressure group, so this subject is closed for the time being.

DECLINE OF OUR SOCIETY

Dear NFN,

After having established in the last few issues of the paper our strong line against abortion (child murder), I was shocked to read in issue 104 the letter from T. W. of Suffolk. I agree that the letters page should cover a wide range of opinions, but, as in this case it was diametrically opposed to our position, I think that it should at least have had an editor's footnote accompanying it.

Surely if ever proof were needed of the decline of our society T. W.'s attitude is it. Life is not something, the value of which is determined by size, age or form, these are material values which have NO meaning when dealing with a spiritual concept which is at the very centre of our ideology. And far from putting women off from joining the NF I feel there must be many women who long to have a family but who cannot, that would share my view.

Yours for Life and Liberty,
C.M. Croydon.

SADDENED

Dear Sir,

I was very saddened to read the letter from T.W. of Suffolk (NFN 104) defending the hideous crime of Abortion.

T.W. used all the tired old arguments of the pro-abortion lobby refusing to accept the fetus as legitimate 'Life', and resorting to the humbug argument of economics as a basis to deny any rights to the unborn child.

Just because a child is dependent on its mother for life does that mean that the child has no rights to live?

The unborn child is as much a human being as its mother or anyone, and from being a few weeks old feels pain, pleasure, heat and cold, just like a normal person. For T.W. to describe an unborn child as just "a few parental cells" is absurd. Life is Life whether it's a fully developed person, or the potential person curled up in the womb.

T.W.'s argument that the NF's anti-abortion policy is "class discriminatory" and "reactionary" is total rubbish. The only people that make a profit out of abortions are the private clinics run by wealthy capitalist concerns and as T.W. conceeds most abortions are for economic reasons. Surely with the fact that most abortions take place within the impoverished working class, abortion is itself class discriminatory. In other words 'if you can't afford it, you can't have a child'. An evil Tory philosophy.

T.W.'s argument that the NF is "at loggerheads with the need to reduce urban sprawl" is almost 'Nazi' in its outlook, totally ignoring the fact that under an NF government our country's population would be reduced by some six to eight million through our repatriation scheme.

Life is sacred, whether it's two month old or twenty years old. An unborn child has the right to life whether it's Black, White or Yellow.

The National Front passionately believes in Social Justice for all and not just those that can speak up for it, or perhaps T.W. goes along with the establishment line; 'an unborn child can't vote'.

Yours Faithfully,
A.M. Oldham NF.

APRIL FOOLS JOKE?

Dear Comrades,

Surely the letter from T.W. of Suffolk (NFN 104) was an April Fools Joke ? I find it hard to believe that a serious revolutionary nationalist could pen such an absurd letter. Your space is limited, but I would like to answer a few of the points raised.

T.W. says "it is wrong and deceptive to call a foetus or embryo a'child' when it is still completely dependent upon the mother's body. That makes it part of the mother's tissue, rather than an individual with a soul." How absurd ! The word 'foetus' derives from the Latin, fetus, meaning "offspring". The Oxford Dictionary defines a foetus as "unborn or unhatched offspring especially human embryo". Secondly, as all good nationalists know - or at least should know - the genes of the parent are transferred at the moment of conception. The DNA molecule present at that moment is the blueprint which determines the height, colour of hair and eyes, and most of the intelligence of the child. In other words, it is a human being whose mental and physical future is largely determined. That it may not look like an 85 year old man is beside the point - an acorn of only a few days age does not look like a hundred year old oaktree, but that acorn is still undeniably an oak !

It might surprise T.W. to find that a child is dependent on the mother for a lot longer than the 9 months of pregnancy - food, drink, cleaning, clothing at the least - but that dependency does not give the mother the right to kill the child. It is right to say that both Men and Women have a right to do what they will with their bodies, so long as they take the consequences. But who has ever heard of a woman with two brains, two hearts, two livers and two pairs of kidneys ? A child after only a couple of months has all of these organs well developed, and only the lungs remain to be activated at birth. If T.W. accepts this incontrovertible point, at what point did this 'child' become human ?

T.W. talks much about unwanted pregnancies, alienation, divorce etc. The obvious answer to this is that if people do not want children they should act responsibly and avoid the possibility of pregnancy. It takes 'two to tango' - if you get caught out it is immoral to kill a child because of your lack of responsibility.

The economic aspects of T.W.'s letter show, correctly, that poor Whites and poor Blacks are disproportionately more likely to have abortions. That is a shocking fact and a consequence of Capitalism, but the crime of Poverty wrought by Capitalism is not to be answered by the crime of Child Murder. The answer is DISTRIBUTISM, that is why the NF promotes this creed ! It is also why the NF's politics has been developed to provide for the material and spiritual welfare of all our people.

T.W. talks about "Population reduction" as necessary, and the potential "increase of Black children" as dangerous. It may interest T.W. to know that no single people of European blood is producing children at the rate at which people are dying - in other words the European peoples' are becoming extinct ! And what is left is getting progressively older in its average age. Thus we need more European children if our race is to survive. T.W. calls the anti-abortion case "reactionary", I call it the programme of preserving our Race, the principle purpose of the NF !

As for the appeal to the 'racist' imagery of Black youngsters, this is summed up succintly in NF policy: compulsory repatriation.

Let me close with a few of the horrifying facts behind the Thatcherite Death State. Since 1967, over 2,600,000 children have been murdered - enough even to fill Wembley Stadium 26 times over ! Of that number far less than 1% have been performed for 'life saving' purposes or threats to the mother's life. In 1986, 144,000 abortions on Britons - not foreigners - were performed. A staggering 97.6% were carried out for 'social reasons' - i.e. because it was inconvenient or the neighbours would talk. At the same time national adoption agencies show that for every child available for adoption, a further 25-30 couples were anxious to adopt. Of this 144,000 only four were performed because of the rape clause. Four out of 144,000 !

Of the 2,600,000 aborted children only 123 were aborted for rape/threats to the mother's life; that is just 0.005% of the total. In other words this country has played host to a real holocaust in human life. Although we have the most liberal abortion laws in Britain the National Abortion Campaign wants possible termination to run to 9 months! The 1967 Act was promoted on an emotive campaign built on rape and the like - 2.6 million died as a result of this dishonest campaign so far. Once you lose sight of the fact that abortion is wrong, mass murder is inevitable. How long before the 1967 Act gives way to the NAC's demand ?

The struggle for the Third Position is a Life and Death struggle. NF policy is clear: WE STAND FOR LIFE! Think again T.W.!

Yours,
B.M. London.

THE FRONT LINE

FLEETWOOD GETS THE MESSAGE

ON Saturday 21st May a number of activists converged on Fleetwood as part of a 'Day of Action' aimed at boosting the movements growing support in the area and throughout North West England.

Fleetwood had been chosen to kick off the campaign as a satellite group under the direction of the nearby Blackpool unit is starting to emerge in the town.

A successful NF News paper sale was held in the main shopping area by several members whilst others distributed around 4000 specially produced leaflets in the nearby Pharo's area.

The leaflet spearheading the North West campaign concentrates on the growing street crime suffered mainly by pensioners, women and children. It proposes that the only solution is true community policing with the heavy involvement of the community. This is in line with the NF's belief in popular participation in government and local affairs.

Many local residents took the trouble to actually stop and praise the NF activists for taking such a militant stand on an issue that effects them in their daily lives and the afternoons activities were judged a great success by the organizers.

RALLY

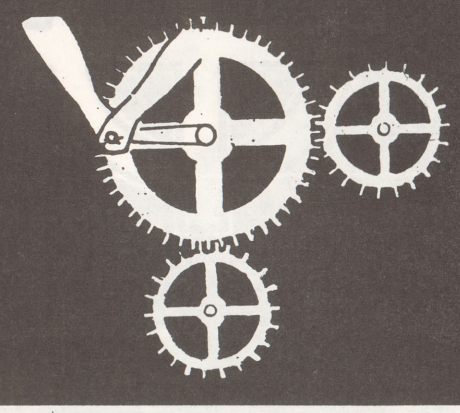
A well attended rally took place in the evening where six speakers gave stirring speeches.

An Oldham member spoke on the subject of Community Action and the solid results that this was bringing the NF in his community.

Great interest was shown in this by the Fleetwood supporters and various pilot schemes were discussed afterwards in relation to the local area. Aspects of true Peoples Democracy were analysed showing that a positive Third Position in British politics is a viable proposition, and can be applied to small towns like Fleetwood, as well as major cities.

Those present considered the possibility of a residents committee being established in the near future. This would be run on the basis of direct democracy in order to ensure that the people of Fleetwood have a real say in the running of their town.

WHAT IS TO BE DONE ?



THIS COLUMN keeps all Movement officials well informed of vital organizational tasks.

All officials and activists must read this column as soon as they receive a new paper - and ACT on the information here.

FRIENDS OF THE MOVEMENT

The National Directorate has raised the F.O.M. fee to £15 a year. This was done in order that units could be offered a £5 cut off the fee as an incentive to recruitment. At its next meeting the Directorate will be considering the possibility of offering discounts on subscriptions to publications for F.O.M.'s.

In areas where no unit exists £5 from every F.O.M. fee will be placed in a special account for unit development.

DISTRIBUTIST LEAGUE

Units who are in the Distributist League should now open accounts under a trading name, as 'Breakthrough Badges' has done, with the bank mentioned at the recent Cadre Conference. The NF account should be kept for non-trade related matters. NF News must be notified of the change of name for advertizing purposes. Any queries - phone!

TECHNOLOGY FUND

All units must push for £1 donations when they do their paper selling rounds. You should also take collecting tins out with you when on street paper sales. We want to clear this fund quickly ! Make sure that everyone at your next unit meeting puts in a pound for the Tech Fund.

MAINLAND VOLUNTEERS

The large recruiting drive by the Ulster NF over the 12th July period is drawing near. With the help of mainland volunteers they intend to make this year the most professional drive ever held. Sleeping accomodation will be available but reservations should be made beforehand by phoning Beacon Books. The Centre is not organizing this trip, it is down to the Regions and units to organize their own transport. Please note that the 12th falls on a Tuesday this year and activities will begin for the preceeding weekend.

TECHNOLOGY FUND ONE BIG PUSH AND WE'RE THERE !

Yes folks, we've almost reached the golden figure ! But before we can start to congratulate ourselves we need one final push to reach our £10,000 target.

Our current total stands at £8,500 so we still need another fifteen hundred pounds to reach our target. This sounds like a lot of money but the NFN staff are confident that with your help we can easily beat the target by our next issue.

All we are asking for is that within the next two weeks every single reader sends us a cheque or postal order for just £1 (one pound). You can send more if you want to but all we're asking for is a quid.

If you help us with this small task then the National Front will be able to purchase all the vital technology that we have been appealing for and in theory we should also end up with a very healthy bank balance enabling us to operate far more efficiently !

We know that this appeal has been dragging on for quite a while so let's get it over and done with now !

If you are in touch with a local NFN Supporters unit hand in your donation to them. They will pass it on to us. If you are not then please send your donation to P.O. Box 228, Manor Park, London, E12. Recorded delivery from your local post office is advised.

Cheques/PO's should be made payable to Third Way.

I have enclosed a donation of £ towards the Tech Fund.

PRINTING THE TRUTH

THE NF's Media Monitoring Unit recently won its case before the Broadcasting Complaints Commission, that the BBC had lied in blaming the NF for the 1979 Southall riot.

The decision was announced on BBC TV and in the Radio Times.

Last year the MMU were forced to submit over 100 complaints to the Broadcasting Complaints Commission and the Press Council.

And so far this year they are well on their way to surpassing that figure.

It is a sad reflection on the media that they have to lie about the NF so venomously.

But we take comfort from the thought that the hacks of the System fear the power of our Third Position ideas so much that they do this.

YOU CAN HELP THE M.M.U.

All of our readers can make the M.M.U.'s difficult task easier for them by sending copies or the details of any mention of the NF in the press or on TV and radio to: MMU, PO Box 57, Romford, Essex.

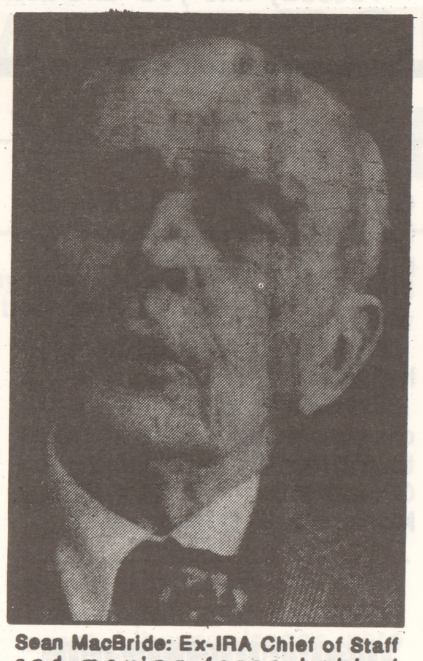
TORIES WILL INTRODUCE...

ANTI-PROTESTANT LAWS

IN late May, the Thatcher regime published a White Paper which purports to outlaw the claimed widespread religious discrimination in Ulster workplaces. In fact religious discrimination will be an essential element of the proposed new laws.

All public sector employers and those in private sector which employ over 25 workers will be required to monitor the religious affiliation of their employees and submit an annual report to the new so-called "Fair Employment Commission". Some 85% of Ulster workers will be affected by 'religious monitoring' when the proposals become law next year. Failure to register and report will be deemed a criminal offence subject to a fine of up to £2,000.

The new laws imply that if the religious breakdown of a firm's workforce differs from that of the population in its catchment area, then that company has been discriminating against either Catholics or Protestants. This will put a heavy pressure on employers to discriminate in favour of the under represented group when they are advertizing vacancies. Any idea of recruiting on merit alone will go out of the window!



Sean MacBride: Ex-IRA Chief of Staff and moving force behind anti-Protestant discrimination.

SECTARIANISM

It is very likely that large numbers of workers will refuse to divulge their religious opinions to their bosses. Quite rightly, they will feel that their religious views are nobody's business but their own. But this will not deter the inquisitorial 'Fair Employment Commission' which has come up with an ingenious way of determining religious belief.

The population will be divided into two religious groups - Catholics and Protestants. This totally ignores the fact that Protestants are not a homogenous bloc like the Roman Catholic Church. There are Methodists, Presbyterians, Church of Ireland and various other denominations. Atheists, Odinists, Mormons and others who are obviously not Catholics will presumably be regarded as belonging to the invented Protestant bloc! Existing employees and job applicants will be required to give details of the schools where they were educated. If they were taught in a Catholic Church run school they will be regarded as Catholics. If they were taught in a State controlled or other school they will be regarded as Protestants. It doesn't matter what you are or think you are, but what the Fair Employment Commission thinks that you are that really counts.

Officially, the White Paper opposes 'quotas', but that is the logic behind 'religious monitoring'. The reality is that American style 'affirmative action' or 'positive discrimination' against Protestants is on the way. This will not break down sectarian barriers but institutionalize them. This is precisely the plan of the late Sean MacBride's anti-Protestant 'MacBride Principles' which have been adopted by several American States.

THE ANSWER

Naturally, the proposals have the full backing of the Yankee-backed SDLP, and the Eire establishment. The Unionist parties and local employers have expressed their opposition, but as usual this posturing will come to nothing.

Discrimination, whether against Catholics or Protestants is a tragically inevitable by-product of the Ulster 'troubles'. Sectarianism will not disappear overnight, especially if the Tories go ahead with their plan to legalize anti-Protestant discrimination.

The IRA's sectarian murder machine must be defeated. This will help end many Protestant's natural suspicion of Catholics as potential informers in the workplace. The problems of unfairness in employment can be overcome when our people have direct ownership of the means of production and distribution. These objectives can only be achieved through the framework of an Independent Ulster.

History, Identity, Culture

ISSUE 105 of NFN looked at Europe's oldest folk-tale, the Tain Bo Cualigne (the 'Cattle Raid of Cooley').

The hero of the Tain was Cu Chulainn, who single handedly defeated the Irish invaders. So who was Cu Chulainn, the ancient hero of Ulster?

AROUND the old Pagan Kings of Ulster was gathered a body called the Red Branch Knights. The foremost of these Knights was Cu Chulainn, a Cruthin warrior who received his training at Emain Macha (the ancient capital of Ulster).

In boyhood he was called Setanta, but then an incident occurred that led to his name change. He was attacked by a savage hound guarding the land of Cullen, the smith, but was able to kill it with his bare hands. In doing so, Setanta promised to guard the Kingdom of Ulster, and became the Champion of his people. He was also given the new name of Cu Chulainn, 'The Hound of Cullen'.

Cu Chulainn proved to be a ferocious warrior. It is said that he once returned from killing Ulster's enemies still in the heat of battle frenzy. He was so pent up with fury that he presented a danger to his friends. To calm him down, some of Ulster's women went out to meet him, naked. Cu Chulainn was thrown into confusion by this sight, and his comrades were able to sieze him and plunge him into three vats of cold water to cool him down! Once he had been calmed he was clothed in a blue cloak by the Queen, and accepted into the royal household as a hero.

Cu Chulainn was virtually invincible in battle. As NFN 104 noted, he was able to defend Ulster against the 'men of Ireland' during the time the warriors of Ulster were laid out under the curse of Macha.

As with many other European heroes, Cu Chulainn was burdened with 'prohibitions'. In his final battle, 'The Great Carnage of Magh Muirthemne', he realizes that he is going to be overtaken by these prohibitions. Before the actual battle he passes three sorceresses roasting a dog at a hearth. It was one of his prohibitions not to pass a hearth without tasting the food. But it was also another prohibition for him not to eat a dog. Caught between the two Cu Chulainn ate the food offered to him, knowing that it would seriously weaken his power. Other prohibitions overtake him, and finally, washing himself in a lake, he kills an otter which comes to drink the water. He realizes that his end is near as it had been foretold that his first and last exploits would involve the killing of a dog.

At the end of the battle Cu Chulainn is grievously wounded. He ties himself to a pillar-stone, so that he may die standing. His power gone, the enemies of Ulster finally dare to approach and behead him.

The next issue of NFN will take a deeper look at Celtic life in the 'Heroic Age'.
